OUR CIRCULATION.

For the information of advertisers and others who may be interested in knowing, we will state that the present circulation of THE TIMES is between eighteen hundred and nineteen hundred copies each week.

EVERY new case of so-called hydrophobia brings fresh doubts into the minds of physicians whether the disease known by that name is really produced by the virus of a rabid dog.

THE Russian harvest is large, but it will not, for all that, serve to supply the extra demand for grain and flour caused by the war.

THE Georgia constitutional convention has repudiated the State bonds issued by Bullock, the reconstruction governor.

No Sunday in Philadelphia.

The directors of the Permanent Exhibition at Philadelphia, have elected Mr. Morton (the president of the Market street railroad,) as President of the Exhibition.

Crops Never Better in Iowa.

Cheerful paragraph in the Dubuque Herald of the 5th: A gentleman who has taken a trip along the Illinois Central to Fort Dodge, and up the Cedar Valley road, reports to us from his own observations and talks with people of all classes in the region through which he passed, that the crop prospects of this portion of Iowa were never better.

Ammunition for the Turks.

BOSTON, August 14.—The English steamer John Bramall sailed from New Haven some time Saturday night with a valuable cargo of ammunition, consigned to the Turkish war department.

Vain Attempt to Rob a Bank.

There was an unsuccessful attempt to rob the Warren, R. I., bank the other day. A woman drove up to the door and called the cashier out to talk business while two men entered the bank, one of them engaging a citizen in conversation while the other took up a tin box, supposed to contain the bank's money and all three rode off.

Titusville's New Oil Fever.

There was a greater rush on Monday to the now famous gravel-bed wells at East Titusville than has ever occurred before since the commencement of the development. Six staves were kept constantly running during the entire day. A new well on lot No. 30, Gile farm, which was finished on Saturday, commenced pumping at a rate which astonished the hundreds of people congregated round the romantic spot.

will be rented to-day for a bonus and half the oil. The Johnson House did a business yesterday equal to that of the days of ancient Pithole. The great rush seems to be in the vicinity of the producing wells, but leases are anxiously sought after and gobbled up from the city limits to the Venango county line, beyond Pine creek.

Two Youths Buffet the Niagara Foam.

The feat of swimming across the Niagara river below the falls has in it so many elements of danger that peculiar credit has always been accorded the accomplishment. Within a comparatively short time, however, numerous persons have successfully crossed the turbulent stream, and even some small boys have demonstrated their ability to accomplish the perilous trip.

O. Monday of this week, as we see by the Niagara Falls Gazette, two boys—Willie Flynn and an adopted son of Mr. Sully—swam from a point below the gas works across the river and back with apparent ease. At one time the boys were enveloped in the thick foam on the surface and were completely lost to sight for a few moments.

What a Woman Gained by the Strike.

An engineer on the Jefferson road got a dress for his wife last week by the use of a little strategy over the strike. He was approached by a merchant of Louisville, who had been caught away from home and was anxious to return. The engineer was on his engine, and waiting permission from the strikers to pull out, when the merchant asked permission to get on with him, so as to make the attempt to run the blockade, and proposed to the engineer that if he would help him and succeeded in getting him out of the city he might bring his wife to his store and get a handsome suit of clothes for her.

Enough of Dory Voyaging.

Mrs. Crapo, who with her husband has just crossed the ocean in a boat, writes home to New Bedford confirming the story of their hardships. She slept on a wet bed all through the voyage.—They had seven gales, the last being very hard; "but," she says, "God was with us, and He calmed the sea so that we were able to make sail." Mrs. Crapo complains of pains all through her body and she fainted twice on the voyage.—The husband, too, was badly used up, and both have enough dory voyaging.

A camp newspaper, entitled the Flying War Sheet, has been started at the headquarters of the Russian army in the field. The new journal is to contain all orders and instructions for the army, lists of all rewards given either to officers or soldiers, information from all the theatres of operations, telegrams from Russia, exact returns of men wounded or killed, and of the numbers sick in camp or hospital, and any other news of general interest to the army.—The price of the paper in the army and in Russia is to be three roubles for six months' subscription. Any profit made is to be devoted to some charitable purpose in connection with the army.—When circumstances permit the paper is to be daily.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., August 12.—During Sunday school services in the Swedish Lutheran church this afternoon lightning entered an open rear window, passing out the front window, instantly killing a boy named Anderson and prostrating an old lady and two girls. The residence of Andrew Smith was struck about the same time, Mrs. Smith being rendered insensible by the shock.

to the famine. Earnest appeals are made for English subscriptions to relieve the suffering.

Ballou's Monthly Magazine for September.

The September number of Ballou's Magazine has many improvements which will commend themselves to the reader after a careful examination. It is the best number that has appeared for some months, and one of the features is a sea yarn by the author of "The Gold Hunters," in which he gives us a romance of California as early as 1843, long before gold was discovered by the Americans, although it was known to the priests and some of the Indians years before. The contents of Ballou's is entirely original, and the stories are really of a high order of merit; there is not a single dry article in the whole number. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street, Boston, at $1.00 per year, post-paid, and for sale at all the periodical depots in the country.

Lippincott's Magazine for September.

The illustrated papers in Lippincott's Magazine for September are "Among the Kabyles," by Edward C. Bruce, and "A Paduan Holiday," by Charlotte Adams, both well written, and the latter very bright and entertaining. An anonymous article on Madame Patterson-Bonaparte is likely to attract much attention. There is the usual variety of interesting stories, poems and miscellaneous matter, all combining to make a very attractive number. Specimen number mailed, postage paid, on address on receipt of 30 cents. J. B. Lippincott & Co., Publishers, 715 and 717 Market street, Philadelphia.
